

Cornelius Barker, MA

aka "Dr. Doom" A former gang member who became a school administrator, Cornelius' world was one of constant trials and tribulations. Serving for more than 25 years as a classroom teacher and administrator, he delivers motivational lectures that help students reevaluate themselves and their interaction with peers. He lectures to school and community groups on the topic of cognitive & behavioral trends exhibited by today's youth, and in the process, he develops respectful disciplines over oppressed young minds Dr. Doom is not a nightmare. The letters that make up the name are an acronym, that represent: Developing Respectful Disciplines Over Oppressed Young Minds.

Cornelius wants the world to know that anyone who works for the betterment of the welfare of children and society as a whole are also a DR. DOOM.

Testimonials

"Cornelius Barker connected with the students immediately and stayed connected throughout his presentations. His infusion of humor to make a point and use of student participation was very effective. I highly recommend his program" – Donald Wernes, Principal, Henry P. Becton Regional High School

"The audience (students, education staff and custody staff) remained captivated the entire time (a rare event here!). At the conclusion, Mr. Barker took time to speak to students individually. I believe he has left a permanent mark on all those who listened and participated." – George Young, Supervisor of Instruction, Union County Juvenile Detention Center, Elizabeth, N.J.

"Dr. Barker understands our world" – Student participant, YWCA of Essex and West Hudson

"Mr. Barker was truly remarkable. His interaction with the audience was a sight to behold. Never do I remember an adult audience being so eager to participate. Cornelius was able to bring out both the adult and the child in each and every one of us. His enthusiasm was contagious, his emotion was sincere and his message was very clear." – Gail Hartman, Curriculum Consultant, Office of Educational Services, State of N.J.
